2018 JAPANESE SPEECH CONTEST

Date/Time:	Saturday, March 3, 2018 from 12:00-4:00pm
	Registration begins at 11:30am.
	*Participants may bring in light snacks, but please have lunch before the contest starts (refreshments will NOT be served this year)
Place:	Mercer University Atlanta Campus, Cecil B. Day Hall
Categories:	Contestants will be divided into three categories. All categories will require contestants to present an original Japanese speech.
Category I:	High school students
	• College students whose Japanese is JLPT N4-N5 level
Category II:	• College students whose Japanese is JLPT N3 level
Category III:	• College students whose Japanese is JLPT N2 level or higher
	• College students who has lived/ stayed in Japan more than a half year.
	• Heritage speakers who have taken Japanese language class within a year. Heritage speaker here means one who speaks Japanese at home but grew up in the U.S. The students who attended Nihongo gakko (Saturday Japanese school) are not eligible to register. (High school students who are heritage speakers are required to register for this category.)
T 41 C 1	Please refer JLPT levels on this site: http://www.jlpt.jp/e/about/levelsummary.html
Length of speech:	Category I: within 2 and a half minutes, Category II: within 4 minutes, Category III: within 5 minutes
	Category III. within 3 minutes
	Points will be taken off if a contestant goes beyond the time limit.
Topic:	Category I: 私と日本語(Japanese language and I), 私の家族・ともだち・先生
	(My family, friends or teacher), 私の学校生活(My school life), 私の好きなこと・もの(The things I like)
	Category II and III: Any topics cutogory is und in range topics
	A brief Q&A will follow each contestant's speech.
Speech script:	• Contestants must write their original speech for the Speech Contest. Teachers and
1	others can only make corrections and suggestions and cannot prepare the speech for the contestants.
	• Contestants must submit a brief summary of their speech in English (about 100 words). An English summary will be printed on the program.  • Contestants must present their speech in Japanese.
	• Contestants must present their speech in Japanese.
Eligibility:	• Each school may submit three contestants for each category.
	• Contestants must be current high school or college students.
	• Previous first prize winners of Category I of this Japanese Speech Contest are not eligible to participate in Category I.  • Previous first prize winners of Category II of this Japanese Speech Contest are not eligible to participate in both Category I and II.

Prizes:	Category 1: Prizes awarded to first, second, and third place. Category 2: First place is awarded a round-trip air ticket to Japan. Prizes are awarded to second and third place as well. Category 3: Prizes awarded to first, second, and third place.
Judging criteria:	<ul> <li>Each judge has 25 points for each contestant. The full score of 4 judges will be 100 points for each contestant. 25 points are divided into the four criteria.</li> <li>Content: contents of the speech, originality (10 points)</li> <li>Voice: appropriate volume and speed of voice, pronunciation (6 points)</li> <li>Delivery: expression, attitude, eye contact (6 points)</li> <li>Answer to a question: appropriate answer to a question asked by judges (3 points)</li> <li>Total: 25 points/judge x 4 judges = 100 points/contestant</li> <li>*High school students will receive 5 points on top of their scores.</li> </ul>
Registration:	The deadline for registration is February 17, 2018
	Please use the following link to register. https://goo.gl/forms/4anLtcV5lkYj5ou33

* We recommend Japanese language teachers to become members of the Georgia Association of Teachers of Japanese (GATJ) in order to participate in other events hosted by GATJ.

Official Webpage of GATJ: http://gatj.weebly.com